Installation notes for Maschine

Do not move anything from the TEKvsAnalogHeat_Maschine folder.

Add the TEKvsAnalogHeat_Maschine folder as a User Path in the Maschine preferences. Open the preferences window, go to 'Library' then 'User', click the 'Add' button and navigate to and select the TEKvsAnalogHeat_Maschine folder in the file browser window that opens, then click Choose.

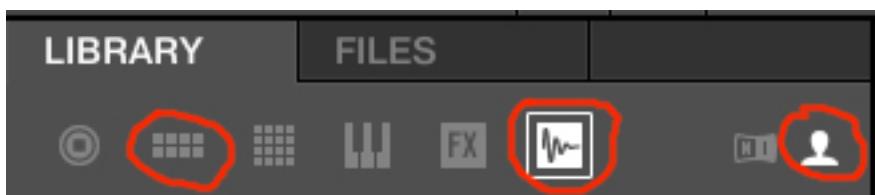

You will also need to double click in the Alias column next to the User Path and add the Alias: tek

Click on RESCAN after this.

The User Paths window will now look similar to this:

TEK vs AnalogHeat will now be available from within the Maschine browser in the Groups, and Samples categories in the User section:
